MUST BE

A college professor says the price of civilization is insanity. If he thinks the present price of it is worth going insane over, he's crazy.—Thomas.

THEY COULD

Soviet chemists filter soapy water to save the soap. Many small boys could show them a much easier way than that.—Christian Science Monitor.

OR A CROONER

The dreadful sounds we sometimes hear over the radio are caused by sun-spots, an astronomer believes. I heard one sunspot last night that was a soprano and one that was a tenor.—Detroit News.

HAPPY ENDING

When lightning struck a cow barn outside of Fitchburg, Mass., it set the barn afire, traveled along a pipe to a water tank on a nearby hill, ripped the tank open, let out a stream of water that ran down the hill and put out the fire.—Parade.

ARMY INSIGNIA

Did you ever hear the story of how army officers got their shoulder insignia? Well here it is. The lieutenant climbs upon the first rung of a ladder so as to see what his men are doing, so he gets a bar. The captain has more men, must climb higher, so he gets two bars. The major has still more men to oversee so up in a oak tree he goes and gets an oak leaf on his shoulders. The colonel jets up with the eagles and the general with the stars. So there you have it.—Sanford Herald.

THE NON-STATUS QUO

The Connecticut community known familiarly as Onionville, on account of its seed growing, is now completely devoid of onions. A condition that is embarrassing, odd and a contradiction in terms.

As well tell us that the last chocolate has been eaten in Hershey, Pa., that you can't get even a first cup, let alone a second, in Hot Coffee, Miss., that people are talking chicken in Turkey, Tex., or that they're cooking with gas in Coal Hill, Ark.

It's getting so there is no depending on the status quo. Schedules are definitely subject to change without notice. Not a bad idea, accordingly, that Onionville's real name is Wetherfield; for no matter whether we have onions, rain, or snow, we always have weather.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

COUPLE OF IRISHMEN

Two gallant young Irishmen from the Free State grew increasingly restive at the thought of so much hell popping everywhere and they not lending a hand in it. Finally they could stand it no longer. Taking leave of the Free State, they went up to Belfast and joined the British army.

One tumultuous afternoon six or eight months later, the two lads found themselves sharing the same foxhole in Italy. With enough hell popping around them to satisfy the keenest glutton for adventure. Bullets whizzed by. Shells screamed past them. Bombers roared overhead and fighters zoomed. Artillery was not entirely mute. It was raining and the boys were up to their knees in mud. And unwelcome visitors had established beachheads upon their persons.

In the middle of the uproar one lad turned to the other and shouted above the din: "Thanks be to God for De Valera, that he kept us out of this!"—New York "PM".

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Rutenber had as guests over the weekend her father, H. P. Gaiety, Sr., and sister, Miss Eva Fay Gaiety of Starks and brother, H. P. Gaiety, Jr., who is a cadet at the West Point Academy. Miss Gaiety remained for a week's visit.

Mrs. Jack Spencer and daughter have returned to Okechobee after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Fletcher were visitors in Okechobee on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Newcome and small daughter of Miami are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Gray, in Pahokee this week.

Capt. R. Sam Mooney of the Army Medical Corps arrived here last week from overseas duty for a visit with his family. He and Mrs. Mooney have gone to Miami for a visit.

Let and Mrs. Joe Tom Boynton left Thursday for Texas attending a visit with relatives in Canal Point and Belle Glade.

FROZEN TARIFF

Some Boston men bought a spring supplying a Canadian lake-water, but found themselves in a quandary when a tariff of 25 cents a gallon was imposed on the importation of the water into the United States. They wrote a New York lawyer and asked him if he could suggest a means whereby they could avoid the law.

He replied: "Freeze the water. Import it in ice cases, and bottle it on this side of the border. There is no duty on ice."

The plan worked.—Collier County News.

HALF-HOLIDAYS GENERAL

Retail merchants show good sense and a modern outlook in agreeing to close their stores one afternoon a week during the summer months.

Many of us can remember when a storekeeper thought that his place of business should be opened at the crack of dawn and remain available to customers until the last man retired from the public streets. Gradually, the hours have been shortened without injury to business or inconvenience to the buying public. Benefits to store-workers are obvious.

The buying public, if it approves the policy of giving store-workers an afternoon off, should see to it that the stores suffer no loss. The public should not penalize progressive storekeepers because they are willing to favor their employees.

FIGHT PAY

It's a new idea, and a good one: "Fight Pay." Extra pay for our combat troops.

Ernie Pyle has made the suggestion. The Record is for it 100 per cent. We'll explain in his words:

"Give the combat soldier some little form of recognition more than he is getting now. Everybody who serves overseas, no matter where or what he's doing, gets extra pay. 'Airmen get an extra per cent above this for flight pay . . . and all that is fine and as it should be, but the idea I was toying with is why not give our genuine combat soldier something corresponding to flight pay?"

"Maybe a good phrase for it would be 'fight pay.' As it is now there is no official distinction between the doctored living for days and nights under constant mortar fire . . . and the headquarters clerk living comfortably in a hotel in Rio de Janeiro."

If there is any good argument against Ernie Pyle's case, we can't imagine what it might be. True, no leader of the soldiers is going to go to the president and say, "Mr. Roosevelt, we either get fight pay—or we stop shooting Nazis."

No, the boys will go on fighting, giving all they've got, no matter whether they get an extra dime—for if their paymaster falls off a truck and fails to show up.

Even Ernie Pyle is not asking. He is just suggesting. Suggesting an opportunity for us. Not to do so much, just a little more. Congress won't need a poll to gauge public sentiment on "fight pay."—Philadelphia Record.

MECHANICAL MARVELS

A new calculating machine that can multiply 10 digits by 10 and give you the answer in a trip has just been perfected by a Swedish-American inventor. Furthermore, this mechanical marvel can, merely by pushing a few buttons, extract square root and cube root.

Slightly larger than a typewriter and weighing about 40 pounds, this arithmetical contraption is supposed to be able to multiply and divide on an equally impressive scale. Indeed, it can, so we're told, do about anything but balance your check book.

What we've been waiting for, though, is the next logical development: A machine which, in a trip, can feed form-10s in blank, push a button, and wait a minute for the completed form to come out the other end.—Hartford Courant.

WAVES Have Good Training Opportunity

Link trainer instructors, aeronauts, graphers' mates, and aviation machinists will be the vanguard of women occupying important positions in the coming age of aviation. Mrs. Marion Bleeck, local WAVES volunteer recruiter, said today.

In urging local young women to investigate the opportunities of service in the women's reserve of the Navy, Mrs. Bleeck pointed out that the training, ranging from six weeks to six months, prepared the WAVES of today for good peace-time jobs of the future.

Applicants, she explained, are required to have two years of high school, be between the ages of 20-36 and if married have no minor children. They may contact Mrs. Bleeck at her home or write direct to the Navy Recruiting Station, post office building, West Palm Beach.

A meeting of parents was called by John A. Bulany in Pahokee Tuesday night for the purpose of re-organizing of the Boy Scout Cub Pack 21. Those attending decided, however, in view of the fact that so many parents were away on summer vacations, it would be more advisable to re-organize the club at the opening of the fall season.

Mrs. William DeLoach and sons left Monday for Jacksonville where she and son, Robert, will make their home and son, Billy, will report for boot training at the Jacksonville Naval Base.

Miss Frances Howell, librarian at Junior College, West Palm Beach, arrived in Pahokee on Monday to spend her summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Howell.

Tinker Christian has gone to Miami for a visit with his aunt, Mrs. A. P. Hooks.

LIONS LETTER

Dear Servicemen, Today being Memorial Day, everyone seems to be in the mood to have a long talk with some close friend about you fellows, and even though you were not with in person at Lions luncheon today, through a silent prayer that was held, each of you was remembered. We reverently asked that God aid you in your great task and speed the day that you will win peace and be a part of our civilian life again.

Rotarian Rev. Moborg was a guest of the club and delivered a wonderful address in memory of the soldiers of the Civil war, as well as the wars since then. He used Lincoln's Gettysburg address as an example of what America is and should always be.

Other entertainment in the meeting was Robert Lampi, local hand director of the high school band. Two of his concertists gave several numbers that tied in with a very colorful series of numbers with Rev. Moborg's address.

Major J. F. McIlwain, Jr., of the USAACE, who is also a charter member of the Pahokee Lions Club gave a very interesting talk. Major McIlwain has been on sick leave, but from his rugged look, after getting a good tan from a fishing trip in Lake Okechobee, and his general attitude about getting back, I am sure a few more days are in for a visit with their ancestors.

There are still a few vegetables moving from the lake and though selling prices have made it hard for potato farmers to move them come off, they have had a nice crop of very excellent quality. Celery is piling up with prices for the past week being $6.00 to $7.00 per crate.

Henry Karlosky, who in the past has been one of the bigger vegetable buyers in this section, passed away at his home in Fort Lauderdale two weeks ago.

Most everyone is sticking close around this summer, and not taking that trip to Georgia. Lion Dave Cunningham says he thinks it's something about some gas . . . but we hope by this time next summer we can have a motorcade from Pahokee through the Alaskan highway.

San-long fellows hope to be seeing you soon . . . in Pahokee.

Al Beverly.

Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Miller

For the Sunday and Monday show we are offering "Princess O'Rourke," with Olivia DeLavand and Robert Cummings. These two delightful players always portray interesting characters and this offering is no different from the rest. We recommend that you see this picture as it has many scenes which you will remember for many a day.

For the Tuesday-Wednesday screening we find "The Chance of a Lifetime," which stars Chester Morris, Jeanne Baker and Chester Lane. As we are always expecting this is an action shake.

This is another of the "Boston Blackie" series and there is quite a bit of mystery attached to it, along with brawls and gun play. So here is one that is sure to keep you awake while you're sitting through it.

The Thursday-Friday offering under the title "Never a Dull Moment," should prove of high entertainment value. It stars The Ritz Brothers, Frances Langford and Mary Beth Hughes with every clever subject and a story that was built around the slogan "A Laugh-A-Second."

For the Saturday offering we

Mrs. Hurt Honored

At Party, Shower

Mrs. O. O. Gilbert entertained at her home on Bacon Point Road Monday afternoon with a party and shower honoring Mrs. R. F. Hurt. Pink ray buds were used in party decorations.

Those attending were Mrs. J. C. Mock, Mrs. W. A. Stevens, Mrs. C. A. Mobley, Mrs. Willey, Mrs. L. M. Mullis, Mrs. W. H. Kemp, Mrs. Frances Connell, Mrs. G. Gills, Mrs. J. E. Urwin, Mrs. J. W. Strickland, Miss Elizabeth Caraway, Mrs. D. W. Crocker, Mrs. Margaret Thompson, Mrs. Deana, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. S. Mullis, Mrs. Hurt and others.

Mrs. Sam Chapman and son, Tommy, will leave Saturday for Athens, Ga., to attend the commencement exercises at the University of Georgia. Mrs. Chapman's sister, Miss Lila Walker, being one of the graduates.

With the short subjects during the week I would say you have very excellent choice of entertainment throughout.

See you at the movies—Mal.

About People
We Know

Mrs. Charles Moran, mother of John Padgett who is a prisoner of the Japs in a camp outside Manila, said this week that she hadn't heard a word from John since she had a couple of cards from him soon after Christmas. The cards were the usual prison camp cards and stated that his health was fair. Mrs. Moran knows the cards were from John since he put personal greetings on them to two Pahokee friends.

Have you tried one of those famous Sunday dinners at Tabby's Lunch in Pahokee? If you haven't then you have a treat ahead. The chicken and dumplings last Sunday were delectable. Many folks have taken up the habit of eating Sunday dinner with Mrs. Tabby. It's a good habit to get into.

Just as soon as John Bolten and R. F. Fletcher get their ducks in a row we're going to be minus a loafing place for a few weeks. John and "Doc" are planning their summer vacations. One store will be closed and one will remain open—thus giving Pahokee at least one prescription drugist during the vacation period. Which one gets his vacation first hasn't been determined to date. Anyway, the proper announcement will come when the decision has been made.

Have you ever seen a stove that you could carry in your pocket? Our first one was shown us this week by Clint Colborn. It's a real little trick and burns some sort of tablets. Guaranteed to make enough heat to boil a pot of coffee or fry a skillet of fish. It's so handy that it will fold up into a package not much bigger than an over-stuffed wallet. Looks like a nice thing to throw into your fishing tackle box. The price? You'd be surprised at the nominal amount.

Workmen are busy this week painting parking lanes in Pahokee. Chief Albert Galt said five weeks ago that this work would be done. Now it's under way and will soon be completed under the direction of Ira Fraser of the sanitary department of the city.

The many friends of Mrs. W. H. Vann will be happy to know that she is improving rapidly after a heart attack several days ago. Mrs. Vann was at the home of her mother Mrs. M. L. Hughes when stricken and it was necessary for her to remain there, for treatment.

Mrs. and Mrs. T. S. Kirk and family left this week for Manchester, Ga., where they will spend the summer. Mr. Kirk is the Seaward commercial agent here and will attend to like duties in the peach section of Georgia.

Terry Sellers said yesterday that his family will spend the summer in West Palm Beach, Terry, as you know, is the commercial agent in Pahokee for the Southern Railroad. Up until yesterday he didn't have his summer traveling orders.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Weeks are in Lulu this week where they were called on account of the death of her father, R. A. Mole. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon. The Weeks family will remain there several days before returning to their home in Pahokee.

The Mrs. Gordon Vann home on Bacon Point road has been sold to Walter D. Glennon of Pahokee. Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Kirk occupied the house up until the time they left this week for Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Keen are in Sarasota where they will spend the summer. Ellsworth is of the opinion that the salt air on the Gulf will benefit his health this summer. They plan to return to Pahokee at the end of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kahn are making plans to leave for New York around the 12th of June on an extended buying trip. While away from Pahokee they will visit all of the Eastern markets in an effort to find merchandise for the fall and winter trade. They expect to be gone about three weeks.

The fence around the Pahokee nursery has been paid for by the Elks, Lions and Rotarians. It ran into a neat sum but the two organizations dug down into their bank accounts and wiped the slate clean. Now, the fence needs painting if it is to be preserved. However, the three civic groups feel that somebody else should dig down for the cash to pay for the paint job. Carmel Salvatore, of the school board, said that probably he could get the paint but the labor must be donated. What are you willing to do about it?

We've heard a story circulated about a fisherman over at Moose Haven who had a rabbit stolen from his hand by a black bass. We can't get heads nor tails of the story and wish to be enlightened. Things are coming to a pretty pass when a black bass has to start eating rabbits. Maybe they would like a rubber band. If we had a rubber band.

DRIVE IT HOME!

That's the way I like to see them," said Gen. MacArthur when he saw the rows of dead Japs in the Admiralty Islands. In this war—the costliest, cruellest war of all time—our boys must fight with savage fury. Kill or be killed! And on how well each plays his part depends the lives of many of his buddies.

Here on the home front, too, just cheering the attack on isn't enough.

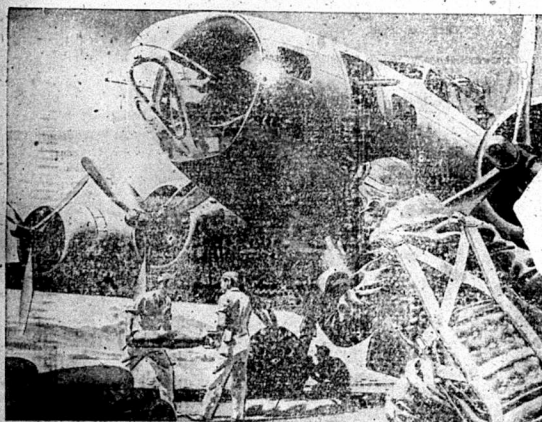

That's why there's a Fifth War Bond drive on now, a drive in which you're needed to support the men on the fighting fronts who are facing the most treacherous forces Americans have ever met in combat. We on the home front can't let them down—and we won't. So resolve now to at least double your Bond buying in the 5th War Loan drive. This is the time to do better than your best.

HE'S OFF ON HIS FIFTY-FIFTH MISSION

There he goes again—out to pour more destruction on the Axis—once more to face the death of enemy fighters and flak!

He won't hesitate to go out on his fifty-sixth or his hundred and fifty-sixth mission. He knows he might not come back, but he keeps on going—giving more and more until the Hitler and Tojo crews are ready to "call it quits."

This is only your fifth mission—and a mission which is mighty easy in comparison with the ones he makes every week.

Stay in the fight by welcoming the Victory Volunteers—at least double your Bond purchases and then keep on. Your buying means "Bombs away" for the Axis!
